His unceasing patience and sincere helpfulness have contributed greatly toward the happiness and success of our high school career.

To the Class of 1959:

Every yearbook is unique, there is no other like it. We hope that each of you will treasure this volume as a reminder not only of friendship and acquaintances formed among fellow students and faculty members, but also of the educational advantages you have enjoyed, and of the obligation which you carry to contribute to your country as a citizen.

Your family, your community, and all civilization may be made better or worse by your individual efforts. There is no human hope or achievement which does not trace back to the minds and hearts of individual people. The grandeur of those hopes and quality of those achievements in the generation ahead is peculiarly yours to decide, as a graduate of McKell High School.
